IDENTIFYING POINTS OF VIEW

POV #1 Who?		POV #2 Who?
What do they want?		What do they want?
Why?		Why?
Just like heroes and villains in a story, there are differing takes on history. Think of governments vs citizens or soldiers vs civilians. What would people with different jobs and/or status think?	YOUR TOPIC:	Questions to ask yourself: Are other countries involved? Who had the power vs who was impacted? Who was involved versus who was a witness?
POV #3	R	POV #4
Who?		Who?
What do they want?		What do they want?
Why?		Why?
Collecting, Preserving, and Sharing Stories since 1846 816 State Street Madison, Wisconsin 53706

wisconsinhistory.org